A: Some time ago, I had the same issue. What solved it for me was to comment my code out so that the router never calls the component. After that, the component was not called. Use withRouter function to get back to router state. France will be one of the best countries to live in by 2021, according to a new report. Using the Economist Intelligence Unit's (EIU) Quality of Living Index, a measure of "infrastructure, culture and environment" and "personal well-being," France has been deemed the best country in the world to live in until 2021. The EIU said that France will be "the best place to live in the world in the coming five years," scoring 94.5 points on the index. "In part, the success is thanks to the political stability provided by a parliamentary system with a two-party system." "France has also benefited from its exposure to the modern world, as many companies, including tech giants, have their headquarters in the country," the EIU added. Other countries in the top 10 include: Switzerland, Denmark, Norway, Germany, Sweden, the United Kingdom, Belgium, Australia, the Netherlands and Canada. The EIU provides a global quality-of-living index, consisting of more than 300 variables, including education, healthcare, safety, and a 82157476af
